Easter Competition: Friday 31st March 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Next week, across all year groups, the children will be learning about the Easter Story and they will be completing some Easter activities in their classes throughout the week.

We also have a very special and creative Easter competition available for all pupils to complete at home! Details of the competition can be found below.

Competition: Can you make an eggcellent scene?

Entries submitted on: Friday 31st 2023

Must include: name and year group (please make sure that this is clearly visible)

Create a scene from a movie, a book or from the Easter story using a boiled egg! Get creative!

You may need:

- a boiled egg for each character you create
- a small box such as a cereal box or an egg box
- colouring pens/pencils or paints
- material, paper, card- to add to your scene if you wish

Examples

All entries will be judged by myself and Mrs Bell on Friday 31st March. We cannot wait to see all the fabulous entries, so get cracking!

Please speak to a member of staff if you have any questions or queries.

Yours sincerely,

Ruth Stone
Principal
